Co-operators (The)	A Better Beginning... We're not your typical insurance company. In 1945, a group of Saskatchewan farmers came together to form The Co-operators. In need of security and protection that the insurance companies of the day could not provide, these farmers created their own company in the form of a co-operative. This spirit of ingenuity and co-operation in the face of challenge is still at the core of who we are, as we work to provide financial security to Canadians and their communities. You can become part of this legacy, one that shows in our culture and people. You'll soon see the direct link between our way of doing business and the healthy, balanced culture we have achieved together. Co-operative values guide us as we work together in a balanced, performance-oriented environment that supports your personal and professional goals. A Better Culture We support one another as we undertake challenging work, and we have a lot of fun doing it. When you work for The Co-operators, you'll be part of a culture that's warm, caring, engaging and rewarding. This outstanding cultural character didn't just happen; it's been guided by solid leadership and the collaborative contribution of every member of our organization, past and present. You'll be part of a team that works hard to develop an inspiring organization and an enjoyable place to work. Find out how The Co-operators makes a difference in local communities and around the world. Find out how we honour your contributions and ongoing commitment to excellence. We are proud to be named once again as one of the 50 Best Employers in Canada by Hewitt Associates and published by the Globe and Mail's Report on Business magazine. It's an honour we take very seriously,	Claims Adjusters, Sales Representatives, Marketing Representatives, Management, Administration	Full-time, Part-time, Summer

	because it proves what we've always known: that The Co-operators truly is a better place to work. A Better Way to do Business We do business differently. As part of a co-operative organization, you'll be part of a business that thinks beyond increasing profits and share values. We're committed to satisfying the needs of our clients and increasing the sustainability and quality of life within their communities. We are owned and democratically influenced by the people whose lives are touched by our products and services. The co-operative values that inspired our founders over 60 years ago continue to guide our organization today; you can see them in our culture and people. There is a direct link between the way we do business and the healthy, balanced culture we have achieved together.
